REVIEW OF PUBLIC NOTICES

The meeting notice was posted on School Website and sent via Remind

- Jonathan introduced David Friedlander to the Board and parents present.
- David shared his philosophy of school leadership, expected culture and environment he is looking for, engagement with families and communities, developing the staff and foundations of trust, respect and transparent communication.
- David gave a copy of his Staff Meeting Agenda and notes from his first meeting with the staff earlier in the day. Hope with end of 1st 9 weeks, kids will return to brick/mortar.
- He also discussed his turnover with Dr. Moss, initial meeting with MCPS and desire to meet local officials in town or our county. Happy to be here.
- Board members (Jonathan & Melinda) offered introductions to town leaders & organizations
 - o David welcomed the intros and made clear his intent to engender their/his support
- David asked the Board about our plans for capital investments (loans, grants and donors) and increasing enrollment. Board discussed the option of local bank loan using assets as collateral (land and/or buildings), selling the buildings/land and renting it back, etc. Deb was to pursue the loan options with the local bank.
- Parents present spoke with David about his approach to engagement and their desire to help

Workshop adjourned at 6:30 pm/1830L
